

Grading of Civilekonom dissertation

Authors:	Title:	Tutor	Examiner
	Motivation	Grade	Grade
Problem: To argue for the problem through its practical and theoretical relevance, and to engage the reader.
Method: To specify how the aim of the thesis is meant to be fulfilled, what alternative methods there are, and arguments for the chosen method.
Literature review: Review relevant parts of the state of the art, More comparative analysis than rewriting.
Empirics: To carry through, structure, and present an empirical investigation.
Analysis: To be capable of applying theories and hypotheses on empirical material and of interpreting empirical results.
Conclusions: To understand the deeper meaning of the results and drawing valid conclusions concerning theoretical and practical relevance.
Presentation: To structure the thesis, to have an adequate reference system, and to write well.
Originality: To create something new.
Process: To work with the thesis independently and in a goal oriented, ambitious, and productive way.
Score _____		0	0
Final grade			0

Each part is assigned a score between 1-7 points, where 1 is F, 2 is FX, 3 is E, 4 is D, 5 is C, 6 is B, and 7 is A. 1-2 is No Pass, 3-5 is Pass, 6-7 is High Pass.